NEWTON PRIDE 2018

NEWTON, NJ - This Saturday, June 23rd at noon, the Sussex County Chapter of the National Organization for Women and Action Together Sussex County will be hosting an LGBTQ+ Pride Rally on the Newton Green. LGBTQ+ voices in Sussex County will be highlighted by a variety of speakers.

Attendees will enjoy music, face painting, and presentations from various organizations throughout the county that provide LGBTQ+ advocacy and support. This family-friendly event encourages all LGBTQ+ residents and their allies, as well as anyone who wishes to support the community to attend. Speakers will include Hampton Township Committee candidate and Pride in Action Facilitator Kailey Denzer-Weiler, local human rights advocates Rebekah & Jamie Bruesehoff, and more! Pride is an important part of LGBTQ+ history, as it commemorates the start of the gay liberation movement. Join Grand Marshall Zoe Heath and Sussex County NOW as we celebrate Pride!

ABOUT SUSSEX COUNTY NOW

Sussex County NOW is the local chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW) in Northwestern New Jersey. Our purpose is to organize and take action with the aim of bringing women into full and equal participation in our county, state, and country. Through grassroots activism, education, and community service, we are working to affect local change and grow the progressive community here in Sussex County and beyond.
